

Let's Practice!

Ross is a big fan of nature.

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Word Bank:

who live - with whom I shared - with whom - whose studies were - whose knowledge

1. Most people _____ at the base of a volcano or have witnessed a volcanic eruption share the belief that volcanoes are one of the most fascinating phenomena in nature.
2. My father, _____ I shared the passion of geology, told me that one of the main classifications in volcanology is determining whether a volcano is active or inactive.
3. My father, _____ and experience was vast, told me that a volcano may be active for many years and then become dormant or inactive.
4. The volcanologists _____ the basis of my research taught at the university I went to.
5. The volcanologists _____ my passion all lived near a volcano when they were younger.

Let's Practice!

Ross wouldn't have been surprised if the volcano had erupted!

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Word Bank:

hardly needed to / wouldn't have gone / wouldn't have been / needed to tell us / didn't need to

1. I _____ surprised if it had erupted.
2. I _____ be reminded of the great force of nature and the possible destruction that might ensue.
3. Nobody _____ that we were taking an enormous risk by living there.
4. I _____ go to university because of all that I learned on my own and all my father taught me.
5. I _____ at all until it became apparent that I couldn't become a bonafide volcanologist without a degree.