

Let's Practice!

Earthquakes are calamitous*. What do you know about them?

*When something is "calamitous", it causes a lot of damage. This word comes from calamity.

Instructions: Complete the sentence by selecting the correct option. Write it down in the corresponding space.

1 up-to-date devastating best-known	2 Faults Seismographs Events	3 different imminent dangerous	4 crust signs damage	5 Levels Warnings Networks
---	--	--	--------------------------------------	--

1. Earthquakes are believed to be the most _____ of all natural events.
2. _____ are produced by the shifting of rocks along cracks which are in the earth's crust.
3. Earthquakes that measure more than 7 on the Richter scale are considered very _____.
4. Seismologists are in charge of studying the movements of the earth's _____.
5. _____ of seismologists have been trying to predict the occurrence of earthquakes.

Let's Practice!

Earthquakes have frightened people since very ancient times ...

Instructions: Circle the word that is misspelled in each sentence. Write the correct word on the line.

1. Two of the biggest earthquakes tha have ever taken place were in Alaska and China.

2. Scientists have said that, so far, eartquakes have been the most devastating of all natural disasters. _____
3. Other countries have been actively assessing earthquake activity. _____
4. Seismologists have allready been succesful in their prediction of earthquakes in Russia. _____
5. It has been difficult to predict all earthquakes because new and more up-to-date detecting metods haven't been found yet. _____